

CIVIL WAR PREVAILS IN RUSSIAN CITIES

Libau, Government of Courtland, Russia, June 29--The Russian sailors here mutinied last night, attacked the government stores, seized the arms and fired into the officers quarters. Infantry, artillery and Cossacks were brought to the scene of the fighting but the result is not known. Intense excitement prevails.

STREETS OF ODESSA RED WITH BLOOD.

Russian Leaders in a State of Panic Over the Bloody Deeds of the Rioters.

ODESSA, June 29.—Hundreds of rioters were shot and many killed by troops during last night. Martial law has been proclaimed. Fires are still burning at midnight, but there was a lull in the disorders at that time.

HEAVY LOSS.

Practically the entire harbor was gutted by the fires started by the mob last night. All the warehouses with large quantities of merchandise, as well as four or five Russian steamers, were burned.

Probably 300 rioters were killed. Several Cossacks were also slain.

The troops are rapidly restoring order.

The losses are estimated at many millions of roubles. The remnants of the warehouses and warehouses set on fire last night are still burning today and the city is enveloped in a thick cloud of smoke.

SEVERAL EXPLOSIONS.

Several explosions occurred in the port during the night and fierce conflicts took place between the troops and rioters. The dead are now reckoned in the hundreds. The hospitals are overflowing with wounded persons and the medical aid available is quite inadequate. The shops are closed and business and traffic is suspended. The streets are occupied by troops.

Many residents are leaving Odessa.

BODY ON QUAY.

The body of Omilchuk, the sailor executed on board the Russian battleship Kniaz Potemkin, is still exposed on the quay, where it was landed by the crew of the Kniaz Potemkin yesterday.

The dead man's comrades, who demand that the remains shall be accorded military honors, actively fought on the side of the rioters against the troops.

MANY SOLDIERS.

There are about 40,000 troops of all arms at Odessa, but there are no fortifications in which they could stand a siege if the rioters and mutineers got the upper hand.

The Russians of Odessa comprise scarcely one-third of the 600,000 inhabitants of the city, about 150,000 people of the residents being Jews and the remainder Greeks, Armenians, Turks and people of various European nationalities. In general the members of the lower classes are persons of the most desperate character.

The public at St. Petersburg has a suspicion of the grave events occurring at Odessa, but the radicals are spreading the news glibly.

Insiders sold heavily on the Bourse today, but only during the latter part of the session, when rumors that something was wrong got abroad and prices fell sharply.

COMPLETE ANARCHY.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29, 4:50 p. m.—Shortly after noon an untimed dispatch was received here reporting that complete anarchy reigned at Odessa. The inhabitants were panic-stricken and were huddled together in the houses. The streets were filled with frenzied workmen fighting the troops. The warehouses, quays and some of the shipping in the harbor were in flames.

VOLLEYS EVERY FEW MINUTES.

The correspondent of the Associated Press who forwarded this dispatch had to make his way to the telegraph office through dense smoke, which covered the city like a pall. He heard volleys every few minutes. In the darkness the mob was beginning the work of pillage and plunder, indicating that the dispatch was filed last night, but was delayed by the authorities.

MACHINE GUNS.

The correspondents added that bluejackets with machine guns had been landed from the battleship Kniaz Potemkin in the hands of the mutineers and then fought with the strikers behind barricades against the troops. Hundreds were killed and the hospitals were crowded with wounded. There were rumors, the correspondent also said, that some of the soldiers had joined the mutinous sailors in fighting against the troops, but he was unable to confirm this report.

WARSHIPS ON WAY.

The correspondent said nothing about the arrival at Odessa of the warships commanded by Vice-Admiral Kruger, but a dispatch from Sebastopol says the battleship Georgi Pobedonostseff and the cruiser Griden have started for Odessa.

GOVERNMENT IN FEAR.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29, 2:05 p. m.—The Government is in a state approaching a panic over the events at Odessa and the gravest fears are entertained of the mutiny among the bluejackets spreading to the army. Should some of the troops at Odessa be won over to the cause of their comrades of

CREW OF A TRANSPORT SEIZE OFFICERS.

ODESSA, June 29.—The crew of a government transport which arrived here today from Nikolief mutinied, seized their officers and joined the crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin, to whom they turned over the captain and other officers of the transport.

It is rumored that the foreign consuls have applied to their respective governments to send

Well Known Caterer Passes Away After Several Days of Intense Suffering.

Death, at 10 o'clock this morning, ended the sufferings of George D. Hallahan, the well known professional caterer, at his home and place of business, southwest corner of Twelfth and Alice streets. The career of a comparatively young man, who had been extraordinarily successful in a most exacting calling, was thus brought to a close greatly to the regret of people in all lines and professions who had known and appreciated him along professional as well as in social lines.

FATAL INJURIES.

The fatal injuries were sustained a week ago by Mr. Hallahan while attempting, alone, at an early hour in the morning, to extinguish flames in his home occasioned by combustion of gas through the instrumentality of an electric spark, which threatened the destruction of his abode as also his place of business.

During the afternoon a truck was removed from the house. In some way it touched the gas jet and slightly turned on the key. During the night the room filled with gas. Early in the morning Mr. Hallahan discovered the leak and when he reached for the gas key he shook the gas fixtures and this slightly jarred the electric attachment causing a small spark. In an instant the gas ignited and the whole room was ablaze. Mr. Hallahan fought the flames alone and conquered them.

The unfortunate young man saved his splendidly appointed home and catering establishment, but sustained severe burns to the effect of which he could not rise superior.

EARLY CAREER.

The deceased was born in Utica, New York City, in 1873, and, accordingly, at the time of his death, Mr. Hallahan was only in his thirty-second year.

He came to Oakland twenty years ago and during the time that has elapsed, he has devoted himself exclusively to either the restaurant or catering business, in each of which he was a pronounced success.

His entire to the restaurant business was made in a store comprising what is now the northern half of the Osgood drug store at the northeast corner of Seventh street and Broadway. He was there in partnership with his brother, Thomas, since deceased.

The success of the firm was so encouraging that the members were impelled to seek more commodious quarters and these they found at the southeast corner of Broadway and Eleventh street, which are now occupied by the Security Bank and Trust Company.

AS A CATERER.

After conducting this resort for a time with liberal and remunerative patronage, the business was abandoned, Thomas, a brother and partner of the deceased, dying, and the survivor, George, deciding to apply himself to catering to the tastes and wants of societies and social gatherings both in the lodge and in the home of private individuals.

It was accordingly to the latter feature of the business that George D. Hallahan, in company with his sister, Mary, now Mrs. Thomas Marion, of Herkimer, N. Y., has devoted himself for about ten years, and in which he became famed for the delicacy, taste and elaboration of his spreads.

He had that discriminating intelligence which enabled him to divine what his patrons desired, even when those patrons found difficulty in making themselves clear and he always had the gratification of knowing that he gave satisfaction to the most fastidious of his patrons. In the greater number of instances he was given carte-blanc, with the result that both host and guest were both delighted. In the feasts, luncheons, outings, dinners and banquets in which Mr. Hallahan quietly, but efficiently, operated, he removed from the minds and shoulders of Oakland maids and matrons a burden, the weight of which may not be accurately estimated.

PERSONALITY.

Aside from the excellence of the menus provided, there was a charm in the modest, unassuming, gentlemanly personality of Mr. Hallahan, which made him welcome everywhere and never more so than in the homes of the ultra society people of this section.

Mr. Hallahan always kept abreast

INFANT IS FOUND IN BOX UNDER HOUSE

Heartless Mother Tries to Murder Her Little Baby.

Rev. Griffiths Hears Cries and Calls the Police to the Rescue.

A mother was prevented from becoming a murderess and an infant baby girl, twenty-four hours old, escaped death by starvation by the fact of Rev. George T. Griffiths moving into a vacant house at 1221 Linden street yesterday.

The child was abandoned by a heartless mother the moment it was born and was placed in a box beneath the house, where it was found. It now rests at the city prison with warm clothing around it and a good supply of milk.

MINISTER HEARS CRIES.

Rev. Griffiths and his family yesterday moved into the house at 1221 Linden street. After the hurry and bustle of placing furniture was over and the family retired for the night there came a plaintive wail from beneath the house as if a lost spirit was crying for light.

The cries of the infant disturbed the family to such an extent that a search was made for it, but without success. This morning the lusty lumped infant made his presence known by further cries.

CALLED THE POLICE.

The Rev. Griffiths again made a search of the house and then telephoned the police that there was a baby secreted somewhere about his house.

Patrolman Walters responded. On reaching the house he listened until he heard the cry of the babe. He finally located the sound as beneath the house. He at once made an investigation and after much difficulty succeeded in finding the opening through which the mother had crawled in abandoning her babe.

UNDER THE HOUSE.

After crawling on his hands and knees through inky darkness in the direction from whence the cries came Walters finally secured the box, which was intended to be the coffin of the child. He found the newly born babe without a stitch of clothing on it.

The child's body was blue from exposure to the dampness of the air beneath the house. The child had not even been washed since it was born. Walters procured a shawl, washed the child and gave it other necessary medical attendance and then started for the City Hall with the little one snugly curled in the shawl.

HUNGRY BABY.

On arriving at the city prison Walters gladly turned the baby over to Health Officer Ewer, who at once administered to the wants of the hungry, cold and abandoned baby. A bottle of milk was heated and given to the child. The tiny lips of the little baby before they touched the bottle were puckering up in extreme hunger. The moment it got a taste of the warm

SEVEN MEN SHOT IN THE SOUTH.

Lynchers Take Seven Negroes and One White From Prison—One Escapes Death.

WATKINSVILLE, Ga., June 29.—Eight prisoners were taken from the jail here this morning and seven shot to death by a mob of masked white men within 200 yards of the center of the town.

Eight men were carried to the scene of the lynching, but one miraculously escaped death by falling to the ground when the volley was fired and feigning death.

The names of the prisoners who were killed are Louis Robertson, Rich Robinson, Sandy Price, Claude Elder, Bon Harris, Jim Yalley, all negroes, and Lon Aycock, white.

NEGRO FEIGNED DEATH.

Joe Patterson, negro, feigned death and the mob left him, thinking he, too, had been riddled with bullets.

Four of the prisoners were charged with being implicated in the murder of Holbrook and his wife several weeks ago, and one was held for attempting criminal assault. The others were in jail on minor charges. The mob formed just after midnight and marched to the jail, where the keys were demanded. The demand was made at the point of rifles, and the jailer realized that resistance was useless. With the keys in their possession the men opened all the cells, and ordered the inmates out, and then lined them up, in single file, tying them with ropes.

BOUND TO A FENCE.

The prisoners, eight in number, were marched to a corner lot within 200 yards of the jail, and in the heart of the town, where they were bound to a fence with their hands tied behind them. The work had been so quietly done that the sleeping residents of the town had not been aroused.

At a command by the leader the mob stepped back a few paces, took deliberate aim and fired a volley from rifles, shotguns and pistols into the line of prisoners. Every man in front of the mob fell at the first volley.

MOB DISPERSED.

Believing its work had been made complete, the mob quickly dispersed. An examination by the jailer who had been forced by the mob to accompany it to the scene of the execution, showed that seven of the men had been riddled with bullets, but Joe Patterson was found to have been only slightly injured.

Patterson's escape from death was almost a miracle, for the fence post to which he had been bound was torn into fragments by the bullets. He possessed the presence of mind to fall with his ill-fated companions and remain motionless upon the ground.

TOWN AROUSED.

The rattle of the volley aroused the town. Scores of citizens sprang from their beds to find the mob nowhere in evidence, however.

The strength of the mob has been variously estimated. The jailer said that there were many armed men, all wearing masks.

He said he delivered the keys to the men, believing it was better to do that than to resist, which he was told would mean the dynamiting of the prison.

Sandy Price was charged by Mrs. Weldon Dooley, who lives in the suburbs of Watkinsonville, with having attempted criminal assault Wednesday afternoon.

No further trouble is anticipated.

KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

Pittsburg Flyer is Derailed; One Person Dead.

CLEVELAND, June 29.—A fast eastbound passenger train on the Cleveland-Pittsburg branch of the Pennsylvania road was derailed and wrecked, near Atwater, Ohio, today. At least one passenger was killed, while a number of others were injured. The dead:

C. H. MUNHALE, Cleveland, commercial agent Cleveland, Akron and Columbus Railway.

Engineer Whitman's injuries are very serious and he probably will die.

The train is one of the fastest between Cleveland and Pittsburg, making the run of 140 miles in two hours and fifteen minutes.

When the accident occurred the train was probably running fifty miles an hour. A construction crew was repairing the track, and it is said had removed a rail. A flagman was sent out, but for some reason he failed to stop the train.

The train consisted of a combination baggage and smoker, one day coach, a buffet car and two Pullmans.

All the injured passengers were in the combination car. The wreckage caught fire, but the flames were soon extinguished.

NEWSBOYS' BOYCOTT IN WIFE DISPLAYED SIGNALS FOR HER LOVERS?

SAN FRANCISCO.

Mayor Schmitz and Abe Ruef Interested in the Battle Against the Bulletin.

Frank L. Southwell Wants a Divorce—Blames Men and Pink Teas.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Bulletin of this city is engaged in a unique contest with several hundred newsboys who have declared a boycott against the paper, and refuse to sell it on the streets.

The boycott is the result of the Bulletin's attitude toward Mayor Schmitz and his administration. For some time the Bulletin has been attacking the Mayor and his adviser, Abe Ruef, accusing them of grafting and maladministration of the city's affairs.

In retaliation a newsboys' union has been organized, and at a meeting they were addressed by Mayor Schmitz, who spoke of his friendship for them, and stated that he had induced the Evening Post to sell its papers to the newsboys at the rate of four for a nickel, instead of two for five cents, as charged by the Bulletin.

The newsboys thereupon issued a proclamation demanding that the Bulletin sign a year's contract with them which would bind it to sell four papers to them for five cents. The boycott went into effect yesterday, and although the Bulletin announced that it would give papers to the boys for nothing, they were not handled on the streets. A crowd of boys surrounded the Bulletin office and attempted to prevent all persons from leaving the office with a paper. Papers were snatched from the hands of grown men, and mobs of boys attacked the Bulletin carrier wagons. A full force of police was on hand, but they made no attempt to quell the disorder.

The Bulletin states that the boys have made no demand for cheaper papers and say they have been incited to their action by the Mayor, who wants revenge for the paper's attacks on him.

As a result of last night's disorder and the attitude of the police, all Bulletin wagons will be guarded by deputy sheriffs.

The police officials state that orders have been issued to arrest any of the newsboys who commit assaults, and that the Bulletin will receive ample protection.

The Bulletin says that while F. R. Sherman, of the firm of Sherman & Clay, was reading that paper in front of his place of business, an attempt was made to tear it from his hands. He saw similar trouble on a street car which stopped at the corner, and on making a protest was assaulted with redwood blocks and forced to retreat.

A divorce suit that promises to furnish a sensation in social circles was begun today, when Frank L. Southwell filed a suit for a legal separation from Mrs. Kate M. Southwell, alleging extreme cruelty.

Every allegation in the complaint is of a sensational character, but owing to the prominence of those interested an effort is being made to suppress the many charges made by the husband.

The Southwells were married October 31, 1900, and their home is at 421 Telegraph avenue. Frank L. Southwell holds a prominent position as receiver of the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway Company.

The most serious charge in the complaint is that Mrs. Southwell received other men during her husband's absence and in order to satisfy do this she arranged with these men a system of signals to let them know when he was at home. Several men are accused of paying attentions to Mrs. Southwell, but their names are unknown to the husband.

Other charges are that Mrs. Southwell neglected her household duties, frequently attending afternoon teas and refusing to prepare her husband's meals. It is also alleged that she often remained away from home late at night.

FINAL DECREE.

A final decree of divorce was granted today by Judge Ellsworth to Cora E. Hepworth from W. H. Hepworth on the ground of desertion. The wife was permitted to resume her maiden name of Cora Quiner and the husband was ordered to pay her $100 a month alimony.

PARSONS TO GET PLACE

WE WILL SUCCEED WALLACE AS CHIEF ENGINEER OF PANAMA CANAL.

NEW YORK, June 29.—William Barclay Parsons of New York is to be the successor of J. F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal according to a report circulated tonight and the story was given credence by friends of Parsons. He is a member of the Panama Canal Commission and knows all about the work. As chief engineer of the Rapid Transit Commission in charge of the construction of the New York subways he showed a genius for encompassing tasks of magnitude.

Wallace is said to have left for Washington late today. As he was leaving the Engineers Club he was urged to make a statement.

"Certainly I cannot be expected to talk at this time," he said. "The President is in possession of all the information I have, and doubtless he will make it public when he sees fit."

"Has it been demonstrated that the cost of excavation for the canal is greater than originally contemplated?" he was asked.

"All these figures are in Washington," he replied. "Let me state however that there is no political scandal or personal offer with high salary and no malice either political or personal involved in my return. Some of the published reports have amused me, others have annoyed me but none have instructed me."

"Will you make no definite statement as to your attitude in the canal situation?"

"None whatever," Wallace replied.

A published report that J. F. Wallace's resignation as chief engineer of the Panama Canal Commission was prompted by an offer to associate himself with the Ryan-McDonald interests in the New York subway operations was denied by John B. McDonald today.

After McDonald's denial the explanation of Wallace's resignation that was current in financial circles was that of friction between him and the other members of the Commission notably President Shonts in regard to the power of the chief engineer.

President Shonts will have an interview with Taft in Washington today after which it was said at his office he would probably have something to say.

MINNIE ADAMS ON WITNESS STAND

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Minnie Adams accepted the witness stand a few moments yesterday during her trial in Judge Lawlor's court. Her evidence, which was of little importance, tended to prove that Wilson Gray did own a pistol in spite of his denial that he ever owned or carried a gun. This was the disputed weapon which the defense claims Gray used to frighten Mrs. Adams and secure $250 which they had accumulated while living together.

John Tyrrell Jr., witness for the defense, springing a mild surprise in the afternoon by positively contradicting important testimony he had given at the Cotton's inquest. At that examination he swore he went to bed on the night preceding the alleged murder, at 8:30 p. m. This is the time which the prosecution claims Mrs. Adams left the house to purchase the poison. She might have gone out without waking up the brother. The coincidence of moments would support the testimony of her brother, Bernard Herlihy, who claim he bearded a Geary street car about 9 o'clock at the corner of Geary and Market streets, and saw a dark street car at that corner and buying a bottle red. So in this trial young Tyrrell repeats his testimony to cover up that hour and the woman who brought the drug and who on leaving the drug store took off the poison label which later he picked up.

The prosecution closed its case with the testimony of Oliver Cox, the man who was very positive in his identification of Minnie Adams and Police Officer Herlihy, who is even more certain that she is the woman who brought the drug and who on leaving the drug store took off the poison label which later he picked up.

G. W. L. Tyrrell, the defendant's brother had little evidence of value except in his statement that the case which the purchases of the drug were unlike any garment his sister ever owned. He with numerous other witnesses testified to the kindness of Mrs. Adams' treatment of her brother, Bernard Herlihy, the little son of Wilson Gray, the little two-year-old baby, had died of carbolic poisoning six years ago.

It is expected that all the evidence will be in the hands of the jury today.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

RENO, Nev. June 29.—Alfred Bennetts, lessee of the Landers mill at Silver City, and one of the prominent mine owners of the Comstock, committed suicide yesterday by blowing his brains out with a 35-caliber revolver.

No motive was assigned for his act as he was wealthy and had never mentioned having any trouble. He had been in the mill all day superintending the work and seemed in the best of spirits.

Just before the millhands quit work for the night he walked into his private office and putting a revolver in his mouth fired a shot through his head. The bullet came out behind his right ear. He was 37 years of age and was a prominent mine owner.

WALLACE IS OUT OF OFFICE

President and Taft Do Not Approve of His Action.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 29.—The resignation of Chief Engineer Wallace, of the Isthmian Canal Commission, has been accepted. The resignation was tendered at a conference in New York between Mr. Wallace and Secretary Taft. Mr. Wallace received while in Panama an offer of a position with a great corporation, the name of which is withheld, at a salary of $60,000 per annum. His salary with the Panama Canal Commission and as chief engineer of the canal was $25,000 a year.

When he told Secretary Taft that he desired to accept the offer which had been tendered to him, the Secretary expressed to Mr. Wallace his feeling in the matter, but he accepted his resignation after a conference with the President at Boston, to take effect immediately.

Engineer Wallace suggested to Secretary Taft that he would remain with the commission two months longer, but after considering the matter President Roosevelt instructed Secretary Taft to accept the resignation at once. There is no concealing by the administration of its feeling regarding Mr. Wallace's tender at this time of his resignation.

It is felt that he has not acted fairly in the matter in having accepted cooperatively recently the responsibility of directing the canal construction and now offering his resignation at a time which is regarded as crucial in the work of the canal.

It is said that he not only accepted the position as chief engineer, but sought it, and expressed his entire satisfaction with the salary given him by the Government.

It has not been definitely decided who Mr. Wallace's successor will be, although announcement of his appointment may be expected within a day or two. The President and Secretary Taft have made a tender of the place to a distinguished constructing engineer, but his name at present is withheld.

THOMAS FINN MUST PAY FINE

SANTA ROSA, June 29.—Thomas Finn, president of the San Francisco Board of Fire Commissioners, and a party of friends were fined $50 for shooting doves at Ukiah this morning. The party consisted of H. Hatfield, Joseph Schrauth, William Cummings, James Swamy, Ed Sturgeon, William Smith, James McNamara and Finn.

Sturgeon entered a plea of guilty for the party, and paid the amount levied by Justice Crockett. Efforts were made to convince the fact that a member of the party, Schmitz, administered one of the game laws violators. The men were caught by Deputy Fish and Game Commissioners J. C. Ingalls and A. P. Lea.

Other convictions of violators of the game laws caught by Ingalls and Lea are August and Ernest Linder, who paid $50 each to Justice Brayton at Laytonville for having shot doves in their possession. H. A. Thomas was convicted of killing deer out of season, and paid a twenty-five dollar fine, assessed by Justice Crockett at Ukiah. This makes an even dozen convictions secured in this vicinity during the last few days.

East of this city not a building in its path withstood its fury and the terrible fury of the wind was intensified by the violence of the electrical discharges and a terrible fall of hail and water. Hailstones of ice measuring fifteen inches in circumference were picked up an hour after the tornado had passed. The precipitation is estimated at 3 inches in a space of 30 minutes.

The course of the tornado, so far as can be learned, was about fifteen miles long and half a mile wide. It disappeared just west of the city.

PEANUT INCIDENT BROUGHT TO CLOSE

William Sherbon, who was found guilty of battery on A. E. Scriven, was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 this morning by Police Judge Smith with the alternative of spending ten days in jail. The fine was paid.

Sherbon who was formerly a deputy constable, alleged that Scriven threw a peanut at him. This insult was too great for him, and Sherbon says he resented it with a blow.

The fight is the outgrowth of bad feeling created at a trial of a suit in the Superior Court for damages.

CHANGES IN THE CABINET

PRESIDENT WILL SOON MAKE SOME NEW APPOINTMENTS.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Four, and possibly six, of the nine great departments of the Government which are represented in the President's Cabinet will have new executive heads by this time next year, or perhaps sooner. This does not signify that there will be that number of resignations within the ensuing year, but when such resignations are as certain to take effect there will be a shifting about of other Cabinet officers.

Unless the President has reason to change his mind, Charles J. Bonaparte of Maryland, who will become Secretary of the Navy next Saturday, will succeed Attorney General Moody when the latter retires a year hence. It was Mr. Roosevelt's original plan to place Secretary of War William H. Taft at the head of the department of justice, but he has another office in mind for him, if Secretary Hay should retire—that is, the State portfolio.

Authoritative announcement has been made that Secretary Shaw of the Treasury and Attorney General Moody will retire next year. Mr. Shaw will relinquish his office in January or February.

Before leaving Washington for his summer sojourn at Oyster Bay the President gave out some "tips," and it is now possible to announce that George B. Cortelyou, at present the Postmaster General, will be the next Secretary of the Treasury. The transfer of Mr. Cortelyou to the Treasury will necessitate, of course, the appointment of a new Postmaster General.

Although reassuring reports are coming from Secretary Hay's summer home in New Hampshire, and there is no reason to expect he will not be well again soon, his latest illness has led to the general belief that he will not care to undertake his official duties again for a long period. Mr. Hay is very solicitous of his own health, and the fear in White House circles is that he will soon go into retirement.

There is indisputable authority for the statement that the President has thought of asking Elihu Root, former Secretary of War, to return to the Cabinet as Secretary of State, but from what was learned today he has about concluded not to do so. Whether or not this decision is due to Mr. Root's disinclination to re-enter public life remains to be disclosed.

The President, therefore, is turning to his versatile Secretary of War, and the indications now are that Mr. Taft will be Secretary of State.

With Bonaparte going to the Department of Justice and Taft to the State Department, the President would have to name a new Secretary of the Navy and another Secretary of War.

DISOWNS DAUGHTER

CHICAGO, June 29.—Stung by what he terms a daughter's perfidy, William Cleaver Wilkinson, professor of literature and criticism at the University of Chicago, and known the country over as the author of the "Chauntiqua series of text books," has disowned his daughter, Evelyn, because of her marriage to Nathan W. Stowell, the Los Angeles millionaire. His action was due to the romance which resulted in Stowell, who is 53 years old, divorcing his companion of years and marrying twenty-two year old Evelyn.

The story is told by her father as follows:

"When we were in Los Angeles with Evelyn, we were called home suddenly and left her as she had been ill. For a month my daughter stayed under Mrs. Stowell's roof and partook of her most generous hospitality. Then she came back to us. Unbeknownst to us she received letters from Stowell. Then he went to El Paso to take up his pretended residence there so as to be able to obtain a divorce. They were married June 12th and are at present at the Portland Fair."

Take the 'Varsity Four-Oared and Freshmen Eight-Oared in Splendid Fashion.

NEW LONDON, June 29.—A perfect June morning was Nature's greeting to the oarsmen of the Yale and Harvard universities, on the day of their annual regatta on the Thames. The harbor was filled with pleasure craft, and as soon as "colors" had been sounded today they ran up flags and bunting and moved up river to anchor above the draw bridge and began to form long lines on either side of the course.

This is the twenty-seventh regatta day on which Yale and Harvard crews have met in friendly rivalry. Eighteen times the sons of Yale have led the way over the single line in more or less hard rowed races. Seven times the crimson has gone back to Cambridge as the victor, and twice both universities have taken part with Cornell in triangular races. It is now six years since Harvard sent a winning crew to the Thames, and prior to that it was way back in 1879 that Harvard broke Yale's string of five consecutive victories. The freshmen crews of the two universities have raced for nearly a generation, and in these events Yale has also been more successful than Harvard.

It was arranged by the committee in charge to have the four-oared and the freshmen two-mile races down stream in the forenoon, the 'Varsity races probably will be rowed at 4:30 o'clock. The failure of friends of the crews to fill up the hotels and boarding houses as they have been wont to do in years past, and the early hour of the freshmen and four-oared races made the crowd which witnessed them the smallest ever known here. It was feared also that the attendance at the 'Varsity race would fall far below that of any other year.

The oarsmen were astir early at their respective quarters and were reported fit.

The first specials to come in from the West were three from New Haven shortly after 9 o'clock. Then for the first time the railroad station assumed an air of observation train seats became brisk. Railroad officials said that few private parties had arranged for cars on the special trains this year, which was in marked contrast with conditions a year ago.

Harvard won the four-oared race by three lengths. The official time: Harvard 11:32; Yale 11:27.

The eight-oared two-mile race between freshmen crews was won by Harvard. Time: Harvard 9:55; Yale 10:04.

Harvard won in splendid fashion the first two races of the annual Yale-Harvard regatta on the Thames, these being the 'Varsity four-oared and the freshmen eight-oared races.

Both the crews rowed magnificently and Harvard had to use every ounce of her power and bring into play every muscle that her men had trained for this particular test of speed.

The 'Varsity four-oared race of two miles went to Harvard by what is officially declared to be a length, and the freshmen race went to the same crew by an official length and three-quarters.

The official times of the races were as follows: 'Varsity four half-mile—Harvard 2:45; Yale 2:44.

One mile—Harvard 5:20; Yale 5:25; mile and a half—Harvard 8:30; Yale 8:34; finish—Harvard 11:32; Yale 11:27.

Freshmen eight—Half mile—Harvard 2:12; Yale 2:13. One mile—Harvard 4:52; Yale 5:10. Mile and a half—Harvard 7:31; Yale 7:31. Finish—Harvard 9:55; Yale 10:04.

At noon the expectation was that the 'Varsity eights would be rowed at 4:30, but the captains at 3 o'clock will meet and set the time and direction.

Both races were magnificently contested.

WHO IS TO BE FIRE IN HOME OF JOHN F. MERRILL SERGEANT? WELL KNOWN MERCHANT'S HOUSE WAS NEARLY DESTROYED.

POLICEMEN COX, CURTIS, BRANNAN AND OTHERS ARE MENTIONED.

The question of a new police sergeant in place of Frank Lynch, who was promoted from a sergeant to a police detective, is now agitating police circles.

Policeman Cox, who was a candidate at the time Charles Block was appointed, is laying his ropes to capture the plum. There are several other aspirants, including Jailer Bert Curtis, James Brannan and others.

The Commissioners refuse to commit themselves. Each of them has a favored candidate, but unless one man is agreed on the Commissioners will pass the appointment for several meetings. It is possible that the question of the new sergeant will come up for discussion at the meeting of the Commissioners on Saturday, when Chief of Police Hodgkins is placed on the carpet in relation to the destruction of the $7500 lottery ticket.

CASE OF NEGLECT

SANTA ROSA, June 29.—District Attorney Charles H. Pond unearthed a shocking case of neglect and abuse of two little girls in this city. The two children are Annie and Maggie Giblin, aged 3 and 12 years respectively. The former had been badly burned about three weeks ago on the legs while playing with matches, and no medical attention had been given the child. Only the crudest remedies were applied by the father, John Giblin, who is alleged to have a net worth $2000, besides being employed as a laborer on the Petaluma and Santa Rosa Railway at good weekly wages.

Maggie Giblin is weak and emaciated from long neglect and lack of food, and is suffering with consumption. Both girls were taken to the County Hospital by Constable James H. Boswell, where for the first time in many months they are receiving kindly treatment. When the attorney visited the premises occupied by Giblin there was absolutely no food in the house and all the children had to eat since last evening was a crust of dry bread. Their food has been provided by neighbors, who pitied the children.

District Attorney Pond was shocked at the conditions he found, and declares he will bring Giblin before the Superior Court and force him to do his duty by the children and provide for them as a father should.

An experienced, competent bookkeeper who has full charge of office of large retail store in San Francisco, would like to take charge of a set of books in the evenings.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Fire broke out shortly after midnight this morning in the palatial residence of John F. Merrill at the corner of Van Ness avenue and Washington street, and before the flames were extinguished the upper floor of the mansion was badly gutted. The Merrills are away in Europe and the house was in charge of servants. The fire started in a dumb waiter on the third floor and is supposed to have been caused by an explosion of gas.

Patrolman Lantz saw flames shooting from the roof of the mansion. He returned in an alarm, and when the district chief arrived another was sent in. The firemen worked valiantly and succeeded in keeping the flames from spreading to the adjoining mansions, though for a time it was feared many of them would be damaged.

Three Japanese servants, who were sleeping in the basement of the house, heard a sharp explosion just before the fire was discovered by Lantz. They rushed out only to find the mansion on fire. The Japanese could not throw any light on the cause, but from the fact they heard the explosion it is surmised that an accumulation of the deadly monoxide caused the blaze.

The Merrill home was one of the most beautiful of the older residences of the city. It contained a very valuable art collection and assortment of bric-a-brac, together with furnishings that cost a fortune. Nearly the entire fittings of the house were damaged more or less by either fire or water. The loss will run into the thousands, though it is thought to be fully covered by insurance.

Mr. Merrill and his family are at present traveling in Europe. The house was in charge of a butler, who was absent last night on a visit with relatives. The mansion contained none of the Japanese, who retired early in the evening. James and Ralph Merrill, sons of the owner of the house, said they visited the place shortly after 8 o'clock last evening and that everything was in perfect order at that time. They estimate the loss at $50,000.

TAINTED MONEY

NEW YORK, June 29.—A new angle has been given to the discussion of "tainted money" by Mrs. William Connell of Staten Island. Before Supreme Court Justice Kelly in Brooklyn, in response to habeas corpus writs brought by the husband, who wished to obtain custody of his children, Mrs. Connell declared she would never live with her husband as she put it by gambling. Her husband was a good man, and won heavily at the racetrack, she said, but it was against her religious training to use funds so obtained, and although Connell left large sums lying about on tables and in drawers, she refused to touch it, and had returned to her parents, taking along the children. Justice Kelly advised the woman to return to her husband, the latter having decided to touch it, but he was in receipt of a regular income; but the woman refused, and the writ was finally dismissed.

SAVED HIS CHILD IN NICK OF TIME

LOS ANGELES, June 29.—In an effort to save his infant son from drowning, E. A. Sulzer, a Santa Fe engineer whose home is at Las Vegas, New Mexico, narrowly escaped death himself at Avalon Bay. Both were saved in the nick of time.

Sulzer went for a row, taking his two youngest children with him. He towed out a mile or two when the younger of the children fell overboard. Sulzer leaped after it but when they came to the surface he found they were quite a distance from the skiff, and he was unable to reach it, being barely able to keep himself and child afloat, while the boat was floating farther away. Sulzer exhausted himself in desperate attempts to recover the skiff and then found there was nothing to do but await the inevitable unless help appeared from some unexpected source.

It happened that Captain I. O. Donaldson in his launch was cruising about with a fishing party. Through his glasses he saw what appeared to be a derelict boat and he started after it. Nearing it he saw it was occupied by a child and putting on all speed, hastened to the rescue. There was a cry for help from the man in the water, and to him they directed their course. They found him so nearly exhausted that he could no longer keep the child's head above water. He was holding on to the unconscious body when he and the child were dragged aboard the rescuing launch.

BRITISH VESSELS WERE NOT DAMAGED

LONDON, June 29. Telegrams received from Odessa by shipowners in London and Liverpool confirm the reports of the state of anarchy prevailing in the Russian city yesterday. EVERETT J. BROWN TAKES A BRIDE. TWO ARE

PRETTY WEDDING
AT THE MADISON
STREET HOME

Miss Osborne Weds the Popular Assistant District Attorney.

MRS. EVERETT J. BROWN (NEE OSBORNE), WHOSE WEDDING LAST EVENING WAS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST EVENTS OF THE MONTH.

The nuptials of Miss Winifred Osborne and Everett Brown, to which so many people in social and professional circles in Berkeley, Alameda and Oakland had been looking forward to with so much interest for some time past, took place last night at 853 Madison street.

Although noted for festive beauty
when garnished with flowers, the home of the bride never presented so attractive and beautiful appearance as it did last night, when it was the scene of a pledging of the vows of love for life to a companion to whom she had been acquainted for many years.

The event was witnessed by the immediate relatives and friends, and the number of these was later swelled by hosts of acquaintances, all of whom were well known in the social and intellectual life of Alameda county.

The vows were pledged in the big round bower window, in which the floral work seemed to obliterate all other symbols of decoration, giving it the appearance of a chamber in fairyland. Ferns, sweet peas, and bunches of ocell brunner roses, relieved with lilies or the valley, and other fragrant flowers, were the decorations.

After the immediate relatives and friends had assembled in the spacious parlor the groom and bride took a position beneath an elaborate floral can-opy, facing the officiating clergyman,
Rev. C. H. Hobart, who had known both of them for years.

Both were unattended, an absence of ceremony entirely in keeping with the known similar and practical tastes of each.

At all times beautiful, the bride last night appeared radiant in an elaborate gown of white crepe de chine, designed in the prevailing fashion, with trimmings of Princess Louise lace.
From the ebony hair flowed a dainty veil, held in place with natural orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bridal bouquet, in which were lilies of the valley and orchids. Her only jewel was a cross of diamonds, which blazed in the electric light, and which was the gift of the groom to the bride.

The ceremony was of short duration but the words uttered both by the minister and the contracting parties were distinct and impressive.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy couple were the recipients of the best wishes of friends and relatives for a prosperous and happy life.

At length the invited guests to the reception began to arrive. The good wishes were continued with unvaryindegrees of heartiness and good will.

Light refreshments were served until 10 o'clock, when the bride and groom left on their wedding tour, which will continue for several weeks.

The dining-room was decorated in red, and was relieved with a dash of green and floral plants, while the specious halls and parlors were massed with ferns, lilies of the valley and roses of a rare and fragrant character.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs.
Anna McLaren Osborne. She is a pronounced brunette of a style of beauty which has made her prominent among the young women of this city. She is a graduate of the University of California, and since her graduation has been connected with the High School of this city. It was at the University of California that the friendship between herself and her present husband was formed, because Mr. Brown attended the same institution at the time Miss Osborne did.

Since his graduation three years ago the friendship has ripened into the feeling which has made them help-mates for life.

Mr. Brown, after leaving the University of California, graduated from Hastings Law College, and immediately took a prominent place in his chosen profession in the bar of Ala-ameda county.

He is considered one of the most promising young members of the local profession, and member of the bench have stated privately that they have seen in him mental capacity and legal information, together with a quality to analysis, which they had not noticed in any save the oldest practitioners in their courts.

Mr. Brown is the son of Mrs. Mathilda Brown, a lady of independent means, who devotes a great deal of her time and resources to the management of the King's Daughters' Home for Incurables.

He is also the grandson of the late Frederick Delger, one of Oakland's oldest and most prominent capitalists.
Mr. Brown is now filling the position of Assistant District Attorney, in which he has displayed great ability in the conduct of cases, and has met remarkable success in securing the conviction of wrong-doers.

After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs.
Brown will return to Oakland and take possession of a home which Mr. Brown has already prepared for their occupancy on Highland Terrace, Piedmont.

MAY AVERT THE THREATENED LOCKOUT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The committee representing Typographical Union No. 21, met representatives of the employing printers in conference last evening at the California Hotel, and discussed the differences between the union and the Typothetae until midnight, without arriving at any definite understanding. John Macintyre, secretary of the United Typothetae of America, was present as the representative of that organization. Every phase of the controversy was fully discussed, and there is still a chance to reach an amicable settlement before July 1, when the existing agreement between employers and printers terminates. The union men ask only that the agreement entered into by both parties continue, while the employers demand its abrogation, and the return to the nine-hour day, from and after July 1.

The employers claim they cannot compete with Eastern printers, unless they work the same number of hours as do competing shops outside of San Francisco. Some telegraphic correspondence will be necessary with the United Typothetae of America before the local firms will decide whether to continue under present terms, and a conference will again be called, either today or tomorrow. Judging from present indications, a settlement may be reached within two days, and the threatened lockout averted. The union was represented by the following delegates: Frank J. Bonnington, Harry L. White, Will J. French, George A.
Tracey. The employing printers were represented by the following committee: James G. Spaulding, George F.
Neal, Bart S. Hubbard, William A.
Swinton, Norris A. Judd and John Macintyre of the United Typothetae of America.

MORE TO JOIN IN BOYCOTT

SELANGOR, Malay, Peninsula, June 29.—The Chinese Chamber of Commerce will meet July 2 to consider the question of joining in the boycott of American merchandise until the Chinese Exclusion Act is repealed. The feeling here is high, and it is considered probable that the local Chinese will join in the movement.

KILLED IN A WRECK

Santa Fe Passenger and Stock Train in a Collision.

KANSAS CITY, June 29.—Eastbound Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe passenger train No. 4, the California limited, and a heavy Kansas City Southern stock train, westbound, collided head on on the belt line tracks at the Gillis street crossing, two miles from the center of the city, early today. Two persons were killed and three injured.

The dead:
WILLIAM FRAZIER, Independence,
Mo., fireman of the Kansas City
Southern train.

MICHAEL DEVINE, Kansas City,
switchman, riding in Kansas City
Southern cab.

The injured:
C. G. Willis, Marceline, Mo., aged 52 years, engineer of the Santa Fe limited; badly scalded; cannot live.
Jesse M. Tabbutt, baggage man of Santa Fe limited, scalded and hurt internally; may die.

One passenger, male, name unknown, believed to be seriously hurt.
Several passengers were severely shaken up, but otherwise uninjured, and were able to continue the trip to Chicago.

Both trains were running at a good rate of speed. Both engines were badly wrecked, the forward combination car on the limited was slightly damaged, and half a dozen stock cars were demolished.

Blame for the collision has not been fixed. The limited train apparently had the right of way. Thomas Fitzmorris, engineer of the stock train, who jumped and escaped injury, could not be found immediately following the wreck. Engineer Willis, badly scalded, and suffering intense agony, crept to the porch of a shanty just off the roadbed. The fireman gave way under his weight, precipitating him to the ground, where he was found unconscious and taken to the hospital.

WHAT A WRECK
COSTS CORPORATIONS

CHICAGO, June 29.—The wreck of the Twentieth Century limited on the Lake Shore last week cost $771,000.
This is the estimate made today, following the disbursement by two life insurance companies of $266,000 to the heirs of the dead. Of this sum $100,- 000 was paid on life policies and $166,- 000 on accident policies. There remains to be paid by the life insurance companies for the deaths in this wreck $160,000.

How much the railway company is affected by the wreck is something of a question, but figures among local railway and insurance men today show that $86,000 will be paid for the deaths without litigation; injury claims are estimated to represent at the present time without litigation $200,000; the loss of the engine stands for $25,000, and of the locomotive for $10,000. To these figures is to be added for incidental losses not enumerated, such as delay of trains, truck repairs, investigation expenses, etc., $25,000. The total of this is $356,000, which, added to what the insurance companies have disbursed makes the money disbursed as the result of a single and quite ordinary wreck $771,000, or three-quarters of a million dollars.

TWO MURDERERS ELKS WILL GO RUSSIA WANTS
HANGED IN STATE MORE MEN

GO TO THE GALLOWS FOR THE KILLING OF AGED MAN.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 29.—Leo Furman and John O'Brien were hanged today for the killing of Samuel Ressler, an aged toll-gate keeper on the night of July 1, 1904.
Furman, O'Brien and a man named Craig, after shooting and slightly injuring several persons at Gordonville, near here, were pursued by citizens.
Craig was captured and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary, but Furman and O'Brien escaped. When they reached the Ressler toll house, one of the men held Ressler while the other shot him. Furman was twenty-two years of age; and O'Brien was twenty-five.

MRS. YOUNG IS NOT TO MARRY

NEW YORK, June 29.—John D. Millin and Mrs. Young, the widow of Caesar Young, Millin's former partner, are not yet married, and do not intend to be, according to "Jack" Atkins, who left Millin in Europe two weeks ago, and recently arrived in New York.
Atkins says that although they went abroad on the same steamship, Mrs.
Young and Millin bade each other goodbye on their arrival in Europe and have since been pursuing their separate ways. Atkins was with Millin on the other side for several weeks, he says, and Mrs. Young was not of the party.

ACCOUNTS MIXED

WASHINGTON, June 29.—There have been sensational stories afloat concerning Paymaster Franklin W. Hart of the navy, now at Mare Island navy yard, who was recently assigned to duty with one of the naval transports destined for the Asiatic station. He did not go and there was some talk of trouble for him on account of alleged irregularities.

There has been no truth in these rumors, although the officer has not been without his difficulties. These have been due to carelessness in preparing his accounts and he is at present completing the record for the satisfaction of the department.

One of the stories in circulation was that Hart had lost something like $10,000 of public funds, for which he would be held responsible. It was said at the Navy Department that no such condition exists.

EL PASO, Texas, June 29.—Across the continent in a special train, headed by the national band of another republic, the El Paso Elks' "Queen Sabe Club," a marching organization 150 strong, every man a member of the antlered herd, forming the most unique crowd that ever attended a Grand Lodge meeting, will go from this city to Buffalo in the next few days.

The trip will cost the club $20,000, and every cent has been raised among the members, all of whom are professional and business men of this city and section, many of them being wealthy misers. The band is tendering complimentary to the organization by Don Miguel Ahumada, Governor of the State of Jalisco, the commander of this famous musical organization of sixty-one pieces. He will send it to El Paso on the special Presidential train, and from there the Elks will take it to Buffalo on their special.

The trip takes the members clear across the continent from El Paso on the south, touching the borders of Mexico, to Buffalo on the north, resting almost on the boundary line of Canada.
On the front of the locomotive which will haul the train will be a banner with Elks' head of incandescent electric lights.
At night it will be seen for miles, and during the day it will divide attention with the unique banners which will cover the sides of the special cars.
At every stop—Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago, New York and elsewhere—the club will perform the street and distribute souvenirs and the band will give a concert in some public square.
The souvenirs to be distributed will consist of Mexican sombreros, carved cane, cigars, tequila, mescol and other liquids in small flasks. Several barrels of typical Mexican drinks will be carried on the train for distribution.
On the sides of the special train will be banners telling the people about El Paso. "Thirty-five thousand people and more coming," "Nine railroads and more building," "El Paso, the greatest mining center of the Southwest," "El Paso, the headquarters of W. C. Greene, the man who saw Lawson."

SMALL FIRE.

The fire department was called out at ten o'clock last night to put out a bonfire which had been started by small boys.
The boys had built a fire on Fourth street, between Castro and Grove, which got beyond their control. Sparks from the fire went down the chimney of a two story house and burned out the roof. The fire was put out by the chemical.

RUSSIAN SURVIVORS.

PORT LUIS, Island of Mauritius, June 29.—The Russian transport Andrey has arrived at Yago Suave, Madagascar, with battleship Orsk, which was captured by the Japanese during the battle of the Sea of Japan.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The State Department has received a cablegram from Mr. Meyer, the American Ambassador to St. Petersburg, saying that extensive mobilization has been ordered in the districts of Kieff, St. Petersburg, Warsaw and Moscow, because of the necessity of immediately increasing the forces in the Far East. It is expected that under these orders between 100,000 and 200,000 men will be called into service.

HAYWARDS PLANS ARE NOW ABOUT COMPLETED.

C. H. LILLIBRIDGE, TREASURER OF GENERAL COMMITTEE FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION AT HAYWARDS.

General Committee Holds Meeting and Hears Reports From the Various Officers.

HAYWARDS, June 29.—One of the best attended meetings of the committees preparing for the Fourth of July celebration was held Tuesday evening in the Town Hall. A very encouraging report was received from the Finance Committee. Treasurer Lillibridge stated that subscriptions amounting to $1,600.50 had been received, and that all but about $50 had been collected.

In the absence of Chairman George Gray, W. J. Ramage reported for the general committee that everything was progressing finely and prospects were excellent for a complete success.

George Oakes, the chairman of the advertising committee, stated that the committee's budgets had been prepared and that they would be distributed soon.

There were two representatives of the Haywards Veterans' League at the meeting. They were G. D. Alexander and Captain O'Connell. They reported that the invitation to take part in the parade had been accepted by the league.

The committee on the literary program, under Dr. G. E. Reynolds, reported a failure to secure the Elks quartet. The program on the evening of the Fourth is reported that many of the companies invited to take part in the contest would be unable to attend. It is probable that only the San Leandro, Fruitvale and Hayward companies will be represented in the tourney. Three cash prizes will be offered, $50, $25 and $15 respectively.

The names of the plenipotentiaries chosen on each side are being submitted to the other by the Washington Government. It is these final exchanges which are now in progress.

In addition to the plenipotentiaries each country will send experts, secretaries and other attaches to Washington.

TWO FROM EACH COUNTRY

NAMES OF PLENIPOTENTIARIES TO BE GIVEN OUT SATURDAY.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—The name of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries are expected to be announced Saturday at the latest. There will be two from each country. Japan are already named and Russia have been tentatively mentioned although it is possible that one of them may not serve on account of ill health.

The names of the plenipotentiaries chosen on each side are being submitted to the other by the Washington Government. It is these final exchanges which are now in progress.

In addition to the plenipotentiaries each country will send experts, secretaries and other attaches to Washington.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 29.—John M. Hancock, who was recently released from San Quentin penitentiary and immediately taken into custody by officers from Lincoln county Nevada, has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

Word to this effect has been telegraphed to this city from Las Vegas, Nev., by the special prosecution engaged in the case.

The crime for which Hancock has been convicted is the killing of Dr. George Engelke, of Los Angeles and Peter Edmiston of Ogden Utah, on the Nevada desert, seven years ago.

NEW YORK, June 29.—One life has been lost and two firemen received serious hurts in a South Brooklyn fire. The property loss was only $500. William Garson was suffocated while trying to reach the street to obtain aid for his wife and a servant girl. The firemen were on a hose cart which they drove into an elevated railroad pillar to escape running down three women directly in its path.

SECRETARY METCALF WILL NOT RESIGN

WASHINGTON, June 29.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Metcalf has given out a statement that he has no intention of resigning his place in the Cabinet. A report that he was to retire called forth a denial.

If you are convinced that the world is growing worse every day, take something for your liver.

SAN FRANCISCO. The sum of $20 was set apart to be given in prizes to the citizens for the best decorated buildings. The first prize will be $10, the second $5, and the third $3.

Frank Dennis of Mount Eden has charge of the day bird shoot on the day before the Fourth. Silver medals and other ornaments will be given as prizes but there will be no cash rewards as it is desired to keep professionalism out of the contest.

A special car is to be engaged and sent to Oakland by the general committee to transport company F. of National Guard, which is to take part in the exercises and parade.

BASEBALL GAMES. William Knightly, manager of the Haywards baseball line reported that he had definitely settled the question of the opponent for Haywards at the baseball game on the afternoon of the Fourth.

The team from Brentwood has applied for the place, and the offer has been accepted. Each side will put up $300 to ward a purse to go to the winning nine.

The new team is said to be a stronger aggregation than the Livermore players, who had been offered the game. This team is breaking up and is unable to accept the challenge.

For the last time before the great day, the committees will be in session next Saturday evening. Bills and claims will then be considered and paid.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Thieves are reported to have been systematically at work for months among exhibits in the American Museum of Natural History in this city. Specimens of gold ores of the great Bement collection presented to the institution by J. Pierpont Morgan, valued at $3000, have been stolen, and in their places cheaper ones substituted.

Artistically gilded lumps of coal and stones are said to have been left in place of the lost. A Siberian collection of implements and garments has been deprived of some of its best examples and many valuable specimens are missing from the butterfly cases.

The theft took place adjoining the alcove in which is a collection of American gems valued at $200,000, also given to the Museum by Mr. Morgan.

Altogether, twenty of the finest specimens of gold ores in the world are missing from the Bement collection. How much they would have assayed is problematical, but they cost about three thousand dollars.

Extraordinary precautions are now being taken by the Museum officials to protect the exhibits many of which have been overhauled and rearranged so that they may be better guarded.

PRESIDENT AT OYSTER BAY

ROOSEVELT ARRIVES AT HIS OLD HOME AT SAGAMORE HILL.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 29.—After a short address to a crowd of several thousand people assembled at the railroad station here, President Roosevelt left Bridgeport shortly after 8 o'clock this morning on the Government yacht Sylph bound for Oyster Bay.

One of the first objects which met the President's eye as he reached the temporary platform erected at the north end of the station was a framed beach which bore a placard marked "One you didn't get."

As the President saw it, he remarked "It is a good thing you are not in Colorado," to the great amusement of the crowd.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 29.—President Roosevelt arrived here on the Sylph at 10:45 a. m. and was driven in a carriage to his old home at Sagamore Hill.

Attacked by a Mob and beaten, in a labor street, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was soon sound and well. FASHION'S LATEST MANDATES.
The skirt of the wash frock not intended for morning wear is of the round length and a majority of the house frocks and youthful dinner and evening frocks are of this length, but formal evening gowns for older women often incline toward the longer and narrower train. This is, of course, especially true of the princess gown, which is very modish and does not lend itself to the round skirt.

Walking hats of fine straw, trimmed in broad scarfs of plaited straw, supple as ribbon and combining many lovely shades, are among the French hats and are distinctly practical as well as pretty. One in a medium shade of bronze green horsehair was swathed in such a band, woven of lustrous straw braid in many shades of bronze green and yellow and two bronze green wings tipped with soft yellow were set upon the left side of the turban.

Most effective are the girdles of wide brocade and flowered taffeta ribbon. With a white frock these belts are particularly attractive, and also with colored gowns the flowered ribbon is newer than the belt of solid shade. For a dress the girdles should have long streamers, either falling loose or looped and knotted here and there. The new girdles are all about the same width instead of being broader in front or back, as last year.

There is a novel weave in the popular raw silk that is known as summa silk, a silk that is light as air, and yet so firm of weave and texture that the fashionables are wearing the smartest of street frocks, shirt-waist suits, little afternoon toilets with a novel twist for the third piece of the costume, all of this lustrous silk; and even for the very smartest wraps that one uses in the evenings, this same summa silk is quite the thing of the moment.

The salmon or pompadour shades, peach pink, melon pink, all the shades of rose, including dried rose leaf and old rose tones, the magenta pinks and reds, the old gold, apricot and banana yellows, with the orange tones shading from mandarin to brown, the bluest blues and a very popular medium shade of blue called saxe, the beige and straw colorings, dove grays—there are a list of the colorings most exploited this season, but one sees many shades not on this list.

The greens are prominent both in millinery and frocks and many new shades are shown, differing only enough from the old tones in some instances to justify the statement that they are new. All of the bronze-green tones from dark to light, the almond and willow greens, a line of elder green, a fresh springlike tint, appropriately called printania, a warm glowing yellow moss green which is at times charming in its millinery uses or sparingly used in mere relieving touches upon a white or neutral frock—all these are fashionable, and there is a vivid Russian green, successful in Paris, though not yet taken up extensively here.

Many of the newest evening gowns, those which are literally a mass of different sorts of lace and embroidery, although not precisely princess, still have very much the same effect, as the waist and skirt are joined together by a band of lace entire. In this way the gown may at one time be worn with a broad colored sash and again be quite plain, thus seeming a totally different frock. As elbow sleeves are worn entirely, it is a good plan—both economical and useful—to have a good fitting yoke made on a separate mousseline lining, for any summer gown can by the addition of a yoke be made as attractive for afternoon wear as for evening wear. This mousseline guimpe should be tied down around the waist with a piece of white ribbon or tape, so that it will be sure to stay in place and fit well on the back. One pretty lace guimpe can be worn with two or three different bodices.

After several months of hard study a committee of doctors appointed to study the clear English skin pronounced upon it thus, giving for its causes a variety of things: First, the habit of tea-drinking. Tea, if not too strong, warms the stomach, flushes the system and aids digestion and circulation. Second, the diet, which is simple and easily digested. Third, the habit of living in the open air. Fourth, the fashion of wearing large shoes and generally loose clothing. These things promote the health and furnish the material for the clear skin for which the English woman is noted.

COURT 2 WEEKS; WEDDED 11 DAYS; DIVORCE, PLEASE

BOSTON, June 23.—Her declaration that she "was forced to marry at the point of a revolver" being insufficient to secure her a divorce within four months of her marriage, Mrs. Maude L. Spencer of Cambridge, may, through her counsel, F. C. Wright, try to have the marriage nullified on the ground that it was illegal. She is an actress, and her husband is Chester R. Spencer, who has been in the vaudeville business. They lived together only eleven days.

After Judge Fox, in the Suffolk Divorce Court, declined to grant her a decree on the ground of cruel and abusive treatment, her counsel asked:

"Would your honor permit us to bring a libel on the ground of nullity?"
"Oh, yes; certainly," said the court. Mrs. Spencer is an attractive brunette, neatly dressed and with fluffy hair and a confident manner. She testified:

"My name is Maude L. Spencer. I was married to Chester R. Spencer at Revere on March 1, 1905. My maiden name was Southwick, and I lived in Cambridge with my mother before my marriage. I only knew my husband two weeks before my marriage. I was playing in the 'Shepherd King' company. I was forced into my marriage at the point of a revolver."

"I met Mr. Spencer. Mother was with me at the time. Later he asked me to go to his house. I said I would be glad to go and to meet his mother. While we were talking he asked me to marry him. I said no, as I did not know him well enough. He said that he would take my life, and that if I did not marry him he would shoot me and kill me."

"I said, 'well, yes, I would.' I went home and did not say anything to my mother about it. I met him next day. This was on Sunday. It was after I was at his home. Mr. Goodwin, a friend of his, arranged that we should take a trip to Revere in an auto. We went to the minister's house. I did not know where we were until after we got in. The minister was not there and we waited until 7 o'clock."

"I told him I did not care enough about him to marry him. Mr. Goodwin said, 'We'll see that you're married all right.' Charley said, 'I've got you now where you can't help yourself. You'll either marry me now, or I'll kill you.'"

Mrs. Spencer did not describe any more clearly how the marriage had taken place, or by whom.

Her counsel asked her what had followed between herself and her husband after the marriage.

"Well, we had two scuffles," said the libellant. "We had gone to my mother's home some days after we were married."

"At this time did he have the revolver?"

"He did."

"What was the result of his treatment of you?"

"I have been under the doctor's care."

"Are you afraid of your life?"

"I should not care to meet him on the street."

"That is not what I asked you. Are you afraid of your life?"

"I am."

"Where is he now?"

"The last I heard of him he was in New York, within two weeks."

The libellant further said she had applied for a warrant for her husband's arrest, and it was in the hands of the Cambridge police when he left.

"How long did you live with your husband?" inquired Judge Fox.

"Eleven days," said Mrs. Spencer, with a saucy toss of her head.

"You met him first on the 23d of February, and was married to him on March 1?"

"Yes."

"You met him less than two weeks before you married him, and now you want a divorce?"

"Yes, sir," with another shake of her locks. "I didn't desire to marry him."

"That's all," said Judge Fox.

Don't let tartar accumulate on the teeth, for it brings a whole train of evils in its wake. Have it removed by a dentist at least once a year.

THIS WOMAN PREACHER REFUSES TO MARRY DIVORCED PERSONS.

It is a rule of the Methodist Church that ministers shall not marry a person who has been divorced, except the divorce has been secured on grounds sanctioned by the scriptures. I have performed many marriage ceremonies, and only once have I varied from my rule not to officiate at a wedding where either of the parties has been divorced.—The Rev. Miss Starr.

PARIS, Ill., June 23.—Women as ministers of the gospel are not so numerous that they do not inspire considerable interest, especially if they happen to be pastors of congregations in small towns or cities. To the credit of the woman preacher it can be said that she is uniformly successful when she essays the role of a ministerial leader of a flock. The women preachers of America are, as a whole, wise with the intuition of womanhood, sensible and unusually conservative.

At Paris the pastor of the First Methodist Church is a woman—Miss Lee Anna Starr. Miss Starr has been located in her present parish for the past year, and during her incumbency the church has become vastly more popular and its capacity for good has increased several fold. Miss Starr is an exceptionally intelligent woman. She is well educated, gifted more than ordinarily with oratorical ability, and, above all, is thoroughly imbued with human understanding. She has been in the gospel ministry for ten years and has had in that time but four charges—a small number for the average Methodist preacher who has been engaged in ministerial work for that length of time.

Two of Miss Starr's charges have been held four years each, and in both of them she voluntarily resigned her labors in the belief that she could do more good elsewhere. These two charges were Mendota, O., and Canton, Ill.

Miss Starr has attracted a considerable amount of public comment through her attitude toward the remarriage of divorced couples. Recently she was asked to perform a marriage ceremony for a couple she did not know. Miss Starr acquiesced, but stated that she must first be assured that neither of the parties have been divorced. When Miss Starr's requirement became known it excited comment in Paris and throughout that section owing to the unusual nature of her demand. Marriage of divorced persons had not been an uncommon occurrence, while such a thing as a preacher refusing to perform the ceremony in such cases was practically unknown to that section. As it happened, the couple had neither of them been divorced, and Miss Starr performed the marriage ceremony in a perfectly satisfactory manner.

In similar cases since, where Miss Starr has not been acquainted with the antecedents of contracting parties, she has made it an invariable rule first to ask them the question: "Have you ever been divorced?"

"It is a rule of the Methodist Church," said Miss Starr, "that ministers shall not marry a person who has been divorced, except the divorce has been secured on grounds sanctioned by the scriptures. I have performed many marriage ceremonies, and only once have I varied from my rule not to officiate at a wedding where either of the parties has been divorced."

"Several years ago, in another place, I was asked to officiate at a wedding. I did not ask my usual questions beforehand, and I was very much surprised to learn, just as the wedding march had been commenced and we were ready to go in for the ceremony, that the bride-to-be was a divorcee. I refused to go on with the ceremony at that time. I was then told that the former husband of the woman had deserted her and that after she had failed to locate him she had secured a divorce. I thought that under the circumstances the woman was without fault and I concluded that there could be no harm in her securing happiness in another marriage if it was possible. I performed the ceremony."

"I have very pronounced views on the subject of remarriage of divorced persons. I believe, as a rule, it should not be countenanced, but I think there are exceptions to the rule. The incident I have related happens to be the only one in my personal experience where I considered a remarriage a legitimate act that would be sanctioned by scriptural teaching."

Miss Starr believes that the divorce evil is a growing one and that ministers can perform an important part in checking it by refusing to officiate in indiscriminate cases of divorce marriages.

In Paris Miss Starr is immensely popular. Her congregations have increased steadily during the past year and just now extensive repairs are being made on the interior of the church. The building has been equipped with a full complement of handsome memorial windows and is being redecorated throughout. The young people's society of the church has arranged for the purchase of a new piano to be used in the church worship. In all more than $1,000 is being expended this summer on the interior, and the congregation is planning, at the instigation of Miss Starr, to remodel the church and beautify it as well as enlarge it considerably next year.

Miss Starr is well known throughout Central Illinois. She is a cousin of Julius Spencer Starr of Peoria and is a frequent visitor in that city. She is attractive and of small stature. She has dark hair and dark blue eyes out of which shines a soul that attracts even the casual acquaintance and marks her as a most prominent type of the intelligent, sympathetic, understanding, Christian American woman.

WOMEN WANT PUPS RAISED ON BOTTLE TO RUN ABOUT THEIR LAWNS UNLICENSED.

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—A provision of law that will not make it necessary to license young puppies, being nursed with a bottle, until there is reasonable ground for believing they will live.

A stop put to seizing of canines while sporting upon the private lawns of their owners.

Shade trees for canine prisoners in the city pound.

These are some of the reforms (there are many more) that a body of public spirited Los Angeles women intend to bring about in dog law. Though City Poundmaster George Vacher can hardly be said to be popular among them, it is specifically avowed that the fight is to be one against him, or the City Council—merely a campaign to better present conditions.

Most of the champions of the large and small Canidae quadrupeds are members of the Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Mrs. Colonel W. W. D. Turner, Mrs. L. E. Giese, Mrs. Mary M. Briggs, Mrs. Carl Kutz, Mrs. Edward Doherty, Mrs. Lee Foster and Mrs. E. T. Stimson have all offered their houses for meetings. One lady has even offered to give a lawn fete to raise funds.

The purposes of the movement are defined in a paper written by Mrs. Giese yesterday, namely: "Our society will endeavor to secure the necessary buildings as required by the law wherein the dogs shall be kept and segregated one from the other, and not seal them in whitewashed boxes, eight by ten feet, without air and ventilation, eighteen dogs in one kennel, sixteen in another, and fourteen in another, as was found last summer during the month of August by several of these ladies with their attorneys. St. Bernards, poodles, black and tan, many and ummany, all huddled together, all panting with heat and fear, howling and tearing at each other with no interference from the pound-keeper."

"Think of the poor suffering brutes in that hot box on one of our torrid days in August! Not a shade tree on the place, nothing but the stump of a century plant. Down at the edge of the river bed, in the hot sand."

"What the S. P. C. A. members are desirous of doing with the help of the citizens is to secure the proper ground with shade trees and plenty of water for the dogs as well as the horses. This place will not then be called a pound, but a rescue home for all small and large animals."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE MEETING

PORTLAND, Or., June 23.—The convention of the National Equal Suffrage Association will be called to order this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Congregational Church.

One of the most interesting numbers scheduled is the response by Miss Anthony to the greetings of other national organizations, representing both men and women.

An international greeting was received from the women of Denmark, and numberless ones from prominent organizations in this country.

In the evening Miss Anthony will preside and Miss Carrie Chapman Catt, vice-president of the National organization will respond to the greetings of Governor George H. Chamberlain, Mayor George H. Williams and President Jefferson Myers of the State Lewis and Clark Commission.

During the evening session the annual report of Rev. Anna H. Shaw, president of the Association, will be read.

THE SONG OF THE LITTLE SCIENTIST.

I'm a happy little Scientist;
The lady told me so;
There's no such thing as suffering—
And 'course she ought to know;
I can throw stones at the robbers,
I can cut off Rover's tail;
You see, 'twon't be my error
If the wicked creatures wail.

Oh, I love to be a Scientist;
I think the Truth is fine;
There's no such thing as hurting folks,
They're sinful if they whine;
I can punch my little sister,
And if she starts to howl,
I'll tell her, "Don't be thoughtless,
For there are no aches at all."

It is good to be a Scientist;
I'm glad I'm one, you bet;
And when a snowstorm comes along,
Then I'll be gladder yet;
I'll plunk balls at that lady,
Just as hard as I can throw;
But she won't feel 'em hit her,
For she's congealed pain, you know.

All-steel cars are to be built to protect mail clerks by railroad transit. And this brings up the interesting question why, if all-steel cars make it safe to ride, why not ordinary passengers, who have quit, as much at stake in railroad accidents and wrecks in the way of lives?

MACCABEES.

All members of the Tent and other tents are requested to be present. The entertainment and dance given by the tent and Oakland Hive, No. 14, L. O. T. M., last Monday night was a success. At 8:30 o'clock the hall of the Temple was well filled. It was opened with selections by the Maccabee brass band of twenty pieces, directed by Sir Knight Joseph Grayson. This was followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Childs, a Spanish dance by Miss Ruth Burnham, a cornet solo by Otto Lercher, a piano duet by Mrs. F. Lercher and Miss Valma Mateo and vocal selections by Miss Lenora Hunt.

Dancing was next the order with music by Mrs. Lercher and son, Mrs. W. H. Smith, commander of Oakland Hive, was chairman of the evening, and Past Commander F. S. evening, once more initiated several candidates, bringing the total number of members of the camp up to about 350. In the near future invitations will be sent to its members and friends inviting them to a whist tournament. One of the interesting features on last Monday evening was the toast responded to at the banquet table. The meetings of this camp are very largely attended by its membership.

Maple Camp, No. 148, of Centerville, when they open its doors to all Woodmen and invited friends to join with them in a jollification meeting and banquet, at which time the officers elected by the ensuing term will be installed by Head Manager Thomas M. Robinson. It is understood that a large delegation will be present from Haywards, San Leandro, Niles and San Lorenzo.

Forest Camp, No. 102, W. O. W., held its regular meeting on last Monday evening. A new degree team will be organized, Neighborhood Brotherhood being elected on ballot as follows: Neighborhood, Angwin, and Whitehead were elected as an advisory committee of the team. On July 10th Neighborhood of Golden Gate Camp of San Francisco will install the officers of the camp which have been recently elected, after which a banquet will follow. Clerk Wrede is still in the East and will not return until about the middle of July. The camp has received about fifteen new applications within the last six weeks.

TRIBE OF BEN HUR.

Oakland Court No. 6 Tribe of Ben Hur, held an enthusiastic meeting last Monday evening, with a large attendance.

Several applications were received for membership. The degree team will initiate candidates next Monday evening.

The installation of the new officers will take place at the Temple, 1080 Broadway, July 10th. Following this installation there will be a banquet, to which the San Francisco courts and Oakland Court, No. 12, have been invited.

Court Athens, No. 887, A. O. F., met last Thursday evening at Fraternal Hall, Seventh and Peralta streets, West Oakland. An interesting meeting was held, the members taking great interest in the new ritual which will be adopted during the ensuing term, and will contain many novel features. This work introduces a new side degree, "Through the Forest," which virtually means a new degree. Each court will vie with each other in selecting the most perfect team.

Courts Athens and Alameda purpose to make a joint social visit to Richmond Court, No. 240, at Point Richmond. On this evening the second degree will be presented by the Richmond Drill Team. Later in the evening a banquet will be tendered to the visiting brothers. Last Thursday evening the Alameda court gave a whist tournament, a very pleasant evening being passed during which many magnificent prizes were distributed. After the games refreshments were served.

ORDER OF RED MEN.

On Friday evening last, Uncas Tribe No. 137, Improved Order of Redmen, held an interesting and enjoyable business and social session.

The business of the Tribe was promptly disposed of in a manner reflecting great credit upon Sachem Bernhard, and Chief of Records D. W. Pratt.

Several special, and standing committees made interesting reports. Brothers who were not at this Council are asked to attend the next. This will be the last council of the Chiefs held this term, and will be the closing chapters of a very interesting and much interesting bit of history in the life of this tribe for the last six months. During this term a number of prominent names have been added to the membership, the wampum belt has grown long and the lodge has become an established fact. The Glee Club has become a social feature, and peace and harmony reign in the fraternal order.

The Adoption degree will be conferred upon a number of pale faces during the second week of Buck Moon. The raising up of the chiefs elect will take place on the first meeting night of the coming month, July 7th. Deputy T. A. Smith will be the installing officer and will have the pleasure of "raising" his old-time friend James B. McKoon to the Sachem's stump.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The spacious assembly chamber of Oakland Lodge No. 103, K. of P., was well filled with the fraternity at its session of Thursday, June 22. As usual on occasions of this kind, the lodge was represented. Under the guidance of the team of Oakland Lodge three esquires were elevated to knighthood. The opinion expressed by the several visitors was that the manner of conferring the rank was beyond criticism. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall. After which mirth and music, long and strong, was enjoyed.

LOYAL TEMPLE.

Loyal Temple No. 47, held a pleasant meeting last Monday evening. Two sisters were received by ballot and one initiation. Monday evening, July 10, Supreme Representative, Lily Samuels will install the officers of Loyal Temple. Monday, July 3 will be the regular whist tournament. The committee in charge has secured some excellent prizes, which are on exhibition in C. J. Heesman's window.

REBEKAHS.

Abbit Invidia Lodge No. 11 Rebekahs, enjoyed a very pleasant meeting last Tuesday, which is now its regular meeting night, but there was no work for the team, and no important business transacted. The lodge decided, in a conference, to have a joint installation of officers with Porter Lodge of Odd Fellows on the evening of July 12th. Mrs. A. Bootsman of Sunset Lodge will be installing officer and a pleasant time is anticipated.

Oakland Rebekah Lodge No. 16, I. O. F., held a pleasant session on last Tuesday evening. After the business of the lodge was concluded the "brothers" took charge showing their capability of entertaining. The program was varied with contests for doughnut eating and egg and spoon races. The local solo of Mrs. E. F. Robinson, heavily accented, as was the guitar solo with harmonica accompaniment of Fred Whiting. After the awarding of the prize for the winners in the contests, the floor was cleared for a dance. Saturday evening the feature of the evening's entertainment will be a cake walk. Sister Elmore will look after the cake walkers and furnish one of her choicest cakes for the prize.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Oakland Lodge No. 162, I. O. G. T., held its regular session at the Temple, 1080 Broadway, last Monday. One proposition was handed in for action next Monday. A prize of $2 will be given to the member bringing in the largest number of members during the month of July. The minimum being four. Sister L. Merrill, chief templar of Alcatraz Temple No. 3, announced that the Temple had taken a vacation till August 11th. Heppner, chief templar of Evening Star Lodge of San Francisco, presided during the evening. Next Monday evening an old fashioned "spelling bee" will be given. The sisters will try to spell down the brothers, the words to be taken from the constitution of the order.

THE AMERICANS.

The whist tournament given by Garfield Assembly No. 16, on Monday evening, was a decided success. The hall was filled with whist-players, before the appointed time to commence the game, and when time was called, nineteen tables were filled with enthusiastic players. Several of the Senate officers were present and were well pleased with the enthusiastic audience. Over twenty beautiful prizes were distributed, the first being won by Reuben Lewis, a member of Garfield Assembly. Great credit is due to the committee of arrangements who worked so hard to make the tournament a success. This Assembly will give another tournament on Monday evening, July 31st.

Oakland Assembly No. 2, will give its whist tournament tomorrow evening at 1060 Broadway. Elaborate preparations have been made to accommodate all who may attend. The committee of arrangements have secured many beautiful prizes, and a large attendance is expected. This Assembly continues to grow and to double its membership during the ensuing term. Brother and Sister Winchester are working hard to bring in new members and are meeting with gratifying success.

Lincoln Assembly No. 7, of South Berkeley is making preparations for their Fourth of July celebration at that place. The committee is meeting with great interest in the matter, and the members of the town who are subscribing liberally towards the expenses necessary for the celebration.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 29.—Fine pitching by Roscoe Miller, timely hitting by Cliff Blankenship and superb fielding by the cellar champion Siwash yesterday sent Van Halten's outrageousy-attired commuters down to defeat in one of the best-played games seen on the local grounds this season, the final score being 2 to 1.

OLYMPIC CLUB CHAMPS ARE BEATEN

PORTLAND, Or., June 29.—Dunne and Watkins, the invincibles at the Multnomah Club, played circles around Levy and Stockton in the Lewis and Clark handball championship games at the club last night. Levy, the Olympic Club crack of San Francisco, did not show up as well in double play as in the singles when he won easily over Clemens of Multnomah. Stockton, his partner, worked hard, but the pair showed the lack of team work their opponents possessed. The Multnomah team took two straight games by scores of 21-9 and 21-7. The rosters' stand was crowded with enthusiasts, who cheered repeatedly and gave all kinds of advice as to side wall play. The contest was a fast one while it lasted.

The second set between Livingston and Barrel of the M. A. A. C. and Marion and Cohn of the M. A. C. was a walkover for the former team. The team took two straight by scores of 21-9 and 21-7. This evening Moore and Holbrook will play Jones and Dennis of Astoria, and Dunne and Watkins will play Livingston and Barrel of the M. A. A. C.

I. X. L. TEAM WINS ITS GAME.

The line-up is: George Allen and Herbert Thompson, pitchers; Jim Merrick, catcher; Keith Chalmers, first base; Curtis Westover, second base; Nestor MacGregor, third base; Herbert Thompson, Henry Bruster, short stop; George Allen, Henry Bruster, right field; Willie Cramer, center field; Butte MacTee, left field; W. Bruster, mascot.

OAKLAND LADS FIGHT FRIDAY NIGHT.

Young Dempsey, who is billed to go twenty rounds with Johnny Crowe, and George Brown, the Oakland boy, who is to fight a preliminary of ten rounds with Warren Zubrick at Colma tomorrow night, are training at the Railroad Club in Oakland, and there will be quite a number of fight fans from this side of the bay to see them do their best when they get in the ring.

GEORGE BROWN, in street attire and fighting gear, who has an engagement at Colma Friday night.

The management of the club made good its promise to get the crowd back to the city before twelve o'clock when it brought George Patterson and Jack Clancy together for the first show given, so the Oakland sports will have no trouble in making the boat for home.

The men who are to fight are all down to the required weight, and thirty rounds of hard fighting can be expected, unless some one is fortunate enough to score a knockout. Brown, the Oakland boy who meets Zubrick, is confident of winning, as is also his opponent. They are fighting with the understanding that the winner takes the whole purse, and have made a good side bet. The winner will be in line to fight for the welterweight championship, so there is as much interest in the preliminary bout as in

GEORGE BROWN, in street attire and fighting gear, who has an engagement at Colma Friday night.

There was a rumor on the streets and about sporting headquarters this morning that Young Dempsey would not keep his engagement at Colma tomorrow night.

At noon, however, the statement was issued from Young Dempsey's camp at West Oakland that he would positively appear.

The rumor that he was not going to fight was started through the fact that he had injured his nose by coming in contact with his sparring partner's elbow yesterday. Last night there was a possibility of Dempsey calling his fight off, but today he has so far recovered from his injuries that he gave assurance of appearing in the ring tomorrow night, and even offered to double his forfeit money already posted.

The go between Crowe and Dempsey, send streets at 7:45 on the night of the fight, and the best of service will be had from the street cars which will leave from the corner of Sixth and Market streets, San Francisco. No one need make a rush for a car returning, for the same number of cars that carry the crowd to the fights will be waiting outside to take them back, and no one will have to crowd or wait a moment for a car.

LADIES TO BE ENTERTAINED AT RELIANCE CLUB TONIGHT.

The much talked of ladies' night which the Reliance Club has been planning for several weeks, is to take place tonight and the club officials are arranging accommodations for one of the largest crowds it has had present at such an entertainment.

Pretty suits and costumes have been provided for those who are to take part and no detail that could add to the pleasure of the occasion has been left unattended to.

The proposed wrestling bout is now an assured fact. The club's wrestling instructor is to be one of the participants, while the other will be a young man whom Mr. Carroll has been developing for the past few months, and who is to enter the Olympic Club's championship contests in the near future.

There are also to be two boxing bouts between pupils of Eddie Smith, which are expected to create no little enthusiasm.

The program in full is as follows: Baton swinging by ten-year-old girl, champion juvenile artist in her line, Miss Bella Manning; tenor solo, Walter C. Wilson, accompanied by Rufus Smith; pyramids by members of the Reliance Club, Fred Quinn; James Evans, John McRice, G. J. Anlof, W. E. Haskell, M. Durning, Earl Stevenson, Harry Marshall, Allen Anderson and Physical Director Otto Rittler.

Monologue, German comedian, H. C. Krieger; wrestling bout, Paul Carroll and W. Eganhoff; roller race, two-mile championship, Don Trego, Cecil Nelson, Sam Hancock, Ed McElighe. Music, Reliance Club Quartet; boxing, Loren Brown vs. Wm. Rows and George Wiley vs. C. Hampton; Rittler Bros., comedy acrobats; fencing, L. C. Dale and L. A. Casavant.

Leora, sensational gymnast; Roman gladiators, representing the following scenes: "Friendship," "The Shot Put," "Roman Duel," "A Start in Sprinting," "Class Night on the Wrestling Mat," "The Tired Boxer," "A Boxing Match," "A Knockout Blow," "A Perfect Man," "The Roman Wrestler," by the following "gladiators": E. A. Allen, G. J. Anlof, W. E. Haskell, Harry Marshall and Fred Quinn.

Battle royal, by Wm. Rows, Elmer D. Woodward, Loren Brown, E. A. Allen and S. Ross.

cate that Sullivan and Mitchell were being dragged from their graves to stalk in their ceremonies. Few, outside of those who were on the inside, could believe that Sullivan and Mitchell would be matched.

"From the very outset, the proposed match was not a joke. There is no reason why it should have been so regarded. Neither Sullivan or Mitchell is an old man; John L. is 46, Mitchell 44. It is admitted that the glove artist sees his best days on the sunny side of 40 years, but there are many instances in which boxers have been hard to beat after they have passed the half century mark. Bob Fitzsimmons has probably seen as many summers and winters thrown in—as has John L. Sullivan, perhaps one or two more. In fact, Bob Fitzsimmons has been 40 for so many years that it is difficult to calculate just how many more than that figure would indicate the length of his sojourn on this earth. Jim Mac of England is today 74. He recently appeared in a boxing exhibition in London, and the newspaper reports were that he was fine, nimble, clever and strong.

"So after propositions as to dates had been made, Tuesday, September 19, was finally selected, and the men will meet on that date in Tacoma, Washington; unless something out of the ordinary occurs to prevent."

KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.
Or Your Hair Will Fall Out Till You Become Bald.
Modern science has discovered that dandruff is caused by a germ that digs up the scalp in scales, as it burrows down to the roots of the hair, where it destroys the hair's vitality, causing falling hair, and ultimately baldness. After Prof. Unna, of Hamburg, Germany, discovered the dandruff germ, all efforts to find a remedy failed until the great laboratory discovery was made which resulted in Newbro's Hair Remedy. It alone of all other hair preparations kills the dandruff germ. Without dandruff, hair grows luxuriantly. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. POOL ROOM DISGUISED AS A SYNAGOGUE.

NEW YORK, June 29.—Charged with conducting a pool room in a synagogue in Grand street, of which he told the police he was the rabbi, Henry Jacobs has been held for trial. It was alleged by the police that after having been refused admittance on the ground that religious services were going on, they broke the door. The walls of the synagogue were, they say, adorned with racing charts and other paraphernalia used in pool rooms.

PADDOCK TALK ANGRY FANS OF EASTERN HORSE NEARLY MOB PERRINE

It is presumed that Irish Lad will find a permanent home at Brookdale, although Mr. Dwyer, his half owner, has himself recently got together a modest stud in Jersey.

Two strong thoroughbred lines are concentrated in him. Through Canadiana, his sire, he is a grandson of Hermit, the great English stallion who sent St. Blaise to the United States and to whom we are indebted for such horses as Florian, Potomac, La Tosca, St. Carlo and St. Leonard. Americana, his dam, was a daughter of Bramble, the Bonnie Scott.

They say the Arrowroose goes to the woods quickly. Perhaps she does, but if she is contemptuously called "cold blooded mare" by the breeding shams, can throw such horses as Irish Lad, it would be a wise thing to breed to them.

Irish Lad was not deficient in any of the qualities which go to make a great racehorse. He was a splendid individual; he could run fast and far, and he is a horse of robust constitution. There is none of the delicate delicacies which marked the majority of the St. Blaises about Irish Lad.

Mr. Rogers hates to acknowledge that there was ever a better horse in America than Irish Lad, who is now standing at Hurricane Farm in the Mohawk Valley, but if one presses him closely one will eventually get the admission that Irish Lad is about the best horse he has ever maddled. Mr. Rogers does not believe that Hermit, or any other horse, would have been able to beat Irish Lad last year if he had had four sound legs under him.

That Alan-a-Dale is all in as a racing proposition even Tom McDowell, his owner, who has been a splendid big chestnut, who got out on the grass course at the Bay recently and curled up in front of a stack of ordinary runners as Jonquil and Migraire, never worked better in his life than he is working these days. He was a splendid horse, but the foot he shows of mornings.

What he apparently became cunning. When he was sent to the training cage it is pretty nearly time to form again is next to an impossibility.

Mr. McDowell, however, is not yet discouraged. He is inclined to think that Alan-a-Dale is a real winner, and he is due to the fact that he got his first race at Louisville, the one in which he ran seven-eighths of a mile in 1:26 flat, before he was ready for such an effort, and that the strain hurt him in some way. Mr. McDowell has a strong belief in the old fellow for a spell. Alan is to rest until he begins to play with his foot, and then he will be sent to the track to try to run away when galloped. If after a course of this kind he does not improve, he will go to permanent retirement at Ashland.

Mr. McDowell will be too busy next spring to look after Alan-a-Dale, and he is wasting time with the old fellow. There are some fine young ones on the Ashland meadows just now.

If Wishard gets Or Wells back to his form of last June, Beland and Sprague will not have a much better chance of winning this season. We have seen few better three-year-olds than the Or Wells and his partner, Delia, who ran Irish Lad to a nose in the Advance, and who won the Commonwealth with a bit of a lead. We have seen few better yearlings than the Or Wells and his partner, Delia, who ran Irish Lad to a nose in the Advance, and who won the Commonwealth with a bit of a lead.

All racing folk sincerely hope that Wishard is right in his diagnosis of Or Wells has nothing constitutionally wrong with him. He was always a big favorite, and his great ability and speed were being badly at this particular time. Most of the good old horses of last year are careered off the track, and there are few first-rate three-year-olds to take their places.

Fruitvale Board Exercises at Elm-of Trade in hurst School
Session. This Evening

FRUITVALE, June 29.—Officers were chosen at the meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade last Tuesday evening. Following are the names of those elected: A. Lorschbach, president; A. Robinson, vice president; W. T. Grub, secretary; and John Bold, treasurer. These with the other directors will act as the executive board.

There was a great deal of discussion on the condition of the streets in the center of the town. There is at present no work being done to keep them in order and repair, and the Board desires that clean streets be the rule in Fruitvale. Dr. J. H. Callen and Vice President Robinson were appointed a committee to look into the matter, and see if there exists no law providing for the care of the thoroughfares in town. If no such regulations can be discovered, the committee is to go before the Supervisors and urge the passage of an ordinance for the purpose.

A committee was appointed to appear at the next meeting of the Supervisors and ask that Fruitvale be given her share of the money spent in advertising the county. On this committee are A. Lorschbach, P. Fredericksen, and A. Robinson.

It was decided to send fifty of the small booklets with pictures of Fruitvale to the California Promotion Committee in San Francisco. The recipients are to use their discretion in giving out pamphlets.

VISIT ALLDAY

At the conclusion of the business meeting, the members of the Board of Trade drove to Alfordale in the bus to visit the flourishing improvement club there. A very jolly evening was spent with plenty to eat and drink. There were speeches by many of the prominent men present, and an interesting program of musical numbers were rendered by the Fruitvale male quartet.

William Brannon, the president of the club made the speech of welcome. He was followed by President Lorschbach of the Board of Trade, who expressed the thanks of the guests for their excellent entertainment.

Others who expressed cordial feelings were Constable Tom Carroll, Dr. Callen, John Bold, William Bridge, and U. A. Lewis.

The purpose of the visit was chiefly to get acquainted and assist the friendly feeling between the two communities.

CHARMING GIRL
BECOMES BRIDE

BERKELEY, June 29.—Miss Florence Burpee, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Burpee was married to Will Morris last evening at the Burpee home on Castro street. The bridegroom included Miss Eva Fulton as maid of honor, and Miss Hazel Burpee and Miss Farnetta Davis as bridesmaids, while the four ribbon bearers were Miss Ellen Pearson, Miss Lucetta Gross, Miss Amy Morris and Miss Olive Morris. Little Miss Ruth Morris was the flower girl, carrying a huge basket of roses. Elmer Morris, brother of the groom was best man.

The bride was gown in white silk. The Rev. E. R. Dille officiated at the ceremony, at which only relatives and closest friends, numbering about seventy-five were present. The young couple will reside in Berkeley, where a pretty home has been made ready for them.

ENGINEER THOMAS MEANS.

BERKELEY, June 29.—Other departments at the University may be closed during the long summer months, while the professors rusticate in the mountains or at the beach, forgetting troubles of campus or college hall life, but in a room in the basement of the chemistry building is a department that goes steadily ahead, without rest or vacation for those who compose its staff. This is the department presided over by Thomas Means, engineer of soils for the U. S. Geological Survey.

Strictly speaking, Mr. Means is not a part of the University's administration. He works for the Government, and uses the University as a base by grace of the University authorities.

Means is a young man, but a mighty worker, who handles problems of immense importance in connection with the work of the Government in reclaiming vast areas of land in the West.

Means has to do with such great reclamation projects as that at Truckee, where the big dam has headed the waters of the Truckee, while they are turned off upon the arid lands of Nevada, thereby reclaiming and making fertile hundreds of thousands of acres there.

WHEAT CHOOSES
TESTS A BRIDE

Student Will Get Berkeley Boy
Samples For Analysis. Weds a Society Girl.

BERKELEY, June 29.—In connection with the Agricultural College's "gluten in wheat" investigation, Samuel Evans, a University student of the '06 class has been empowered by the authorities of the Agricultural College to spend six weeks in the San Joaquin Valley, collecting samples of wheat, which Professor G. W. Shaw will use in his experiments to determine the amount of gluten in California wheat. Evans' home is at Modesto. He is familiar with the San Joaquin Valley, knows the varieties of soils there and is deemed a suitable person to collect the samples required.

Professor Shaw's experiments are being made in co-operation with the State Board of Trade. It has been said that the California varieties of wheat are deficient in gluten, the most valuable quality which wheat possesses. It is Professor Shaw's task to ascertain which varieties show most gluten, and which districts seem to produce more of the wheat that is richest in gluten.

Samples of wheat were taken last winter from wheatlands throughout the State and these have been analyzed, the samples which Evans will secure will be of this year's crop. The results of the complete analysis are awaited with great interest by all the interests affected by the wheat industry.

SMALL BOY IN THE COUNTRY.
A Perry mother sent her small boy to the country, and after a week of anxiety received this letter: "I got here all right, but I forgot to write before. A feller and I went out in a boat and the boat tipped over and a man got me out. I was full of water that I didn't know anything for a long time. The other boy has to be buried after they find him. A horse kicked me over and I've got to have some money for fixin' my head. We are going to set a barn on the tonight, and I should smile if we do not have some bull's fun. I am going to bring home a tame woodchuck if I can get him in my trunk."—Kansas City Journal.

MANY MEMBERS

Eighteen Initiated at Meeting of Lodge.

HAYWARDS, June 29.—Eighteen new members were taken in at the last meeting of the Fraternal Brotherhood here. There were many prominent lodge members at the session, and a very pleasant evening was passed.

A short program followed the initiation exercises. Miss Sannie Kruger favored with a vocal solo. Miss Eva Collier recited and E. A. Castello sang a song.

The Rev. J. A. Batchelor, the Supreme Chaplain of the order as well as the presiding officer for the Methodist Church in this district, was at the meeting and conducted the initiation, being the highest officer present. He also made a short and interesting address on "Fraternity."

Colonel C. W. Stone, the supreme representative of the Pacific Coast District, and C. A. Tobey of Oakland were also there. Many other well known lodge men from different parts of the State came also.

Strawberries, cream, and cake were served later. The gathering concluded with a social hour.

TO HOLD LAWN FETE.

Plans are being made by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Episcopal Church to give a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Angus next September. The party will be one of the biggest social affairs of the season. The grounds where it is to be held are very beautiful, located in the pleasant part of Castro Valley. It was at first the intention to hold the entertainment during this month or next, but on account of the absence of many of the members of the society it was thought best to defer it until after the close of the vacation season.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

The Bank of Haywards has declared its sixth semi-annual dividend. On and after July 1, $3 will be paid to the owner of every share of stock.

Mrs. Thomas Armstrong of San Francisco has received all the estate of her late husband, who died here two weeks ago. No provision was made for the children, who were left to the love and consideration of their mother. The estate is valued at $600.

Work on the chimney has been finished by the Hunt Brothers' Cannery. Additional repairs and alterations are being made in the equipment preparatory to the run of apricots. Only about two days' work will be done on this fruit before the Fourth. The crop is reported this year as being a record breaker for size.

MINOR MENTION.

All the entries to the poultry show to take place here on July 3 were handed in to Mr. C. Williams of Fruitvale before last night. So many birds have been entered that there is serious doubt if the Opera House will comfortably contain the fowls.

J. D. Brish and Miss Harms were re-elected as teachers in the Palomares school at the last meeting of the trustees.

After an interesting trip to Yosemite, Professor Vogt and A. De Camp returned to Haywards yesterday. Dressed in his constituent, De Camp so much resembled the pictures of President Roosevelt that his companion introduced him as "Teddy." When the president of the party, there was a large crowd assembled to partake of refreshments at the expense of the executive's double.

S. C. Smith and her daughters have returned to Eureka, their former home, to spend the summer with the mother of Mrs. Smith.

James Foye has fully recovered from the accident in which he broke his leg two months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hamer have settled at their new home on the Meek tract.

CAMPUS
PLAGUE

Fine Old Oaks Suffer From Insect Pests

BERKELEY, June 29.—A notable sight on the University of California campus these days is myriad moths that hover about the branches of the great oaks on the university campus, their attentions being such as to lead Professor C. M. Woodward, the entomological expert to declare that the attacks of the insects constitute a menace to the life of the magnificent trees. Last year a somewhat similar plague was experienced, but the visitations of the moths this spring are very much more harmful, in the opinion of experts.

Four varieties of insects have settled in swarms upon the oaks. One of these is said by Professor Woodward to be the only specimen of the kind in the United States. This moth is called the phryganian, of the diptera family. The moths hover over the trees in thousands. Their eggs are laid on the branches and leaves, to develop in a month into caterpillars. The caterpillars will eat the leaves and twigs, and checked by some method. It is proposed by Professor Woodward to thoroughly spray the oaks, when the caterpillars are a few days old, hoping by this means to prevent serious damage.

Besides this moth, the trees are being attacked by the Douglas bark beetle and the bark beetle. Their action is similar to that of the first mentioned insect.

Plant lice in great numbers are now at work on the oak leaves. They suck the sap from the leaves, leaving a secretion which develops into fungus, eventually killing the leaves, after the fashion of black scale.

JAP CLAIMS CHINESE
BUNCOED HIM

Bucked the Tiger and is Now Trying to Get Hold of the Big Prize.

ALAMEDA, June 29.—Hisashi Kuru, a Japanese of sporting proclivities who is employed by Joseph Bernard of Park street, declares that for ways that are dark and for tricks that are vain the heathen Chinese is peculiar, a remark not altogether original with Kuru. He "bucked the tiger" at a local Chinese lottery, but he claims, and was backed out of $800 which, he alleges, was due him by the proprietor of the Railroad avenue chance emporium on a ticket bearing the eight-spot which won the capital prize in a recent drawing.

The Chinks, who, it is asserted, have been running the lottery with much secrecy, came back at the Japanese with the complaint that he resorted to a fraud to try to secure the $800 on a ticket he never purchased.

According to the lottery proprietors, Kuru craftily marked several tickets and dropped them on the floor, thus coming into possession of several of the curiously marked tickets for which he had not paid. It was one of these, and not the one the Japanese had bought, they say, which won the pot.

Kuru engaged two lawyers and succeeded in getting all Chinese lottery tickets issued in the city voided. The Chinese lotteryman wanted to secure a warrant for the little brown man's arrest on a charge of blackmail, but the lawyers asserted that the law offered no protection for concerns of that character. Similarly the lawyers of the sporting Japanese could themselves be voided.

The game has suspended operations, but the war feeling between Kuru and his friends on one side and the Chinks on the other is running high. A riot call to suppress a disturbance in Chinatown may be expected at any time.

OFFICIALS MUST PAY.

ALAMEDA, June 29.—The poll tax collectors here have inaugurated a new policy in collecting the poll tax from municipal employees. Heretofore the city employees have been rather lax in paying this annual tribute, but this year they have to have "time or money" or the amount will be deducted from their salary warrants. This applies to firemen, policemen, employees of the street department and others. The city has taken this method as a last resort to make municipal employees realize that they are on a level with other citizens.

It is not known how they will take this order, but the city expects to receive the salary warrants come up for consideration before the Board of Trustees, all those who have not yet paid their poll tax, and those having their warrants held up until the proper reduction is made.

If the 12 is not paid before Tuesday the amount under the law becomes $3. There is to be no escape for the city employees this time and the total amount to be paid is $1,000.

FUNERAL OF GEORGE SCHEINER.

ALAMEDA, June 29.—The funeral of George Scheiner, a musician, will be held at 9:30 o'clock from the funeral parlors of Smiley & Gallagher, thence to St. Joseph's church, where a Mass will be said. A large attendance of friends paid their last respects to Mr. Scheiner, who was a musician about the bay. He was a member of the Golden Gate Park band and his comrades accompanied him to the church. The funeral was a very touching affair. The choir played Chopin's funeral march. They also rendered the fantasia "Nearer My God to Thee."

ALAMEDA, June 29.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Roberts are summing at Camp Taylor.

Miss Vera Kahn, daughter of City Electrician Joseph E. Kahn, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. John Conrad and her grand-daughter are at the Taylor, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Martin leave tomorrow for Los Angeles, where they will spend two months.

War Correspon-Outing of Methodent to Tell of Experiences. San Leandro

BERKELEY, June 29.—Colonel Edward Emerson, the war correspondent and historian, will lecture in Hearst Hall at eight o'clock this evening, under the auspices of the Musical and Dramatic Committee of the University of California. His subject will be "The Manchurian Campaign." This is the first of two lectures, the second of which is to be "In and Out of Port Arthur." The title of the course is "Personal Impressions of the Russian-Japanese War." Mr. Emerson describes these battle scenes from his own personal experiences as a war correspondent in the field.

Emerson graduated from Harvard University in 1891 and for the next five years served on the New York Post. In 1896-97 he was on the staff of the New York Sun; and in 1898 he became secretary to President Seth Low of Columbia.

On the outbreak of the Spanish war he joined the Rough Riders, and was mentioned by Colonel Roosevelt for conspicuous gallantry. After the war he became correspondent for the Colliers, the Nation, the World, the Chicago Tribune, the London Graphic, Le Monde Illustré (Paris), Die Woche (Berlin), Illustration (Paris), the Hongkong Times, the Shanghai China Daily News, the Sydney Times, and the Melbourne News.

He arrived in San Francisco on June 12th, on the transport Thomas and leaves in a few weeks for Washington to represent a number of Japanese papers at the Peace Conference.

Mr. Emerson is the author of the following works: The College Year Book, (Stone & Kimball); Pepy's Ghost, (Richard Badger); Rough Riders Stories, (L. E. Page & Co.); War and the Monroe Doctrine, (Criterion Publishing Company); and A History of the Nineteenth Century, 3 volumes, (Dodd, Mead & Company).

INCINERATING COMPANY TO FLOUR MILL FOR GIVE NEW DEAL. LIVERMORE

Scavengers Will Be Allowed to Collect Garbage But Price
May Be Increased.

The Pacific Incinerating Company, through its representatives, last night, at a conference with Mayor Mott, the Board of Health and a committee from the Council, announced that no further effort would be made to carry out the contract with the city for the collection and destruction of garbage.

The reason of this announcement is that the incinerating company is losing money and that the public has opposed the company instead of assisting it. The meeting between the city officials and the incinerating people was strictly executive. It was held for the purpose of outlining some plan whereby more satisfactory service will be given the people. Those present at the conference were Mayor Mott, Councilmen Elliot, Thurston, Hahn, Dr. N. W. Ewer, Dr. Frank L. Adams, A. S. Liley, Attorney George W. Reed, Attorney V. S. Goodell, Attorney J. H. Creely and Attorney R. T. Harding.

The plan under discussion was to permit the scavengers to resume operations and deliver the garbage to the plant of the incinerating company. The scavengers would collect from the people at the old prices plus the cost of burning the garbage, which would be about $1.50 a ton.

Councilmen Hahn, Elliot and Thurston were opposed to any plan save that of the strict compliance with the terms of the contract with the city. In reply to the demand of the Councilmen that the company live up to its agreement, Attorney Reed stated that it was the intention of the company not to try to fulfill that contract because it was impossible. He stated that the company was losing money every day and that there was a pronounced opposition from the public. In drawing up a new ordinance, the Board of Health will probably have charge of the matter. Dr. Adams and Dr. Ewer last night stated that in the event of the scavengers resuming operations the wagons be lined with metal inside and that at times in passing through the streets the wagons should be covered.

The conference did not come to any definite decision last night. The general inference is, however, that the scavengers will be asked to take charge of the collection of the garbage as of July 1, and deliver the refuse to the crematory door. The scavengers will derive as much revenue as before. The householders will be put to the additional expense of paying for the incinerating of the garbage. This charge will not be burdensome, as the cost will not exceed $1.50 a ton.

The benefits to be derived from the sanitary dump of the refuse, the members of the Board of Health state, will more than compensate for the slight increase of cost. If the new plan goes into operation the waste and the garbage may be put in the same can and not as at the present time when garbage and refuse are dumped in the streets. However, it will have to be kept separate.

John F. Buckley, manager of the Dundon Iron Works at San Francisco, wished to present to the meeting the plan of disposing of garbage employed in the Dundon incinerator. "The collection was executive, however, and Mr. Buckley was not granted the privilege of expounding his views. Mayor Mott assured him, however, that in the near future his plan would be looked into. Mr. Buckley stated that the Dundon Iron Works manufacturing an incinerator which will burn both garbage and waste matter and that the product may be used for street pavement. A plant capable of destroying forty tons a day, Mr. Buckley stated, is now being constructed in Sacramento. The cost is $15,000.

company to fasten the guy that ran into the ground for the purpose of bracing the pole. While on the pole he laid his hand upon the guy wire by the electric light pole, which was supposed to be "ground." They stated that it had become live by rubbing across a wire that carried 2500 volts into a motor in the Providence hospital. They stated that in the afternoon the guy wire that had caused the death had been taken down.

Prior to the calling of the case, E. B. Jones, who had been summoned as a juror, came into the office and objected to sitting on the jury because of the manner in which he had been summoned.

He stated that Deputy Coroner Van Franklin had stuck the summons in his pocket and that it did not have his initials on it, and after some hot words with the coroner, he was allowed to go.
